

ACADEMIC CALENDER

SCHOOL OF BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES
MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM

School of Behavioural Sciences established in 1988 under Mahatma Gandhi University has a variety of unique higher education programmes aimed at developing human resources in the field of disability rehabilitation and mental health for the upliftment of the weaker sections of the society. In India, we have many National Institutes instituted for the care of each of the disabilities. School of Behavioural Sciences is one of the first University departments in India that started academic programmes in this field and addressed the problems and issues in all disabilities under a single roof with a holistic nature in the 1980's itself.

Vision

Moulding a new generation of youngsters with higher level knowledge and commitment towards mental health and disability rehabilitation.

Mission

- Conduct of higher education and research programmes in Behavioural Medicine, Rehabilitation Nursing, Psychology and Special Education
- Extension of activities mental health, disability rehabilitation and empowerment
- Development and implementation of innovative approaches mental health and rehabilitation.
